

2005 Margaret River Vintage Report

A very good vintage. Below average rainfall in winter was followed by a mild spring and warm dry summer. Near drought conditions prevailed until late March when rain arrived during harvest. The Cabernet reached good phenolic ripeness and some decent wine was made. Some really excellent Chardonnays were made, mostly on the elegant side.