

2007 Margaret River Vintage Report

A remarkable but relatively early vintage. Vintage took place during some of the hottest March days ever recorded. While Perth sweltered at 42 degrees, Margaret River – betwixt two oceans – recorded 37.5. The overall flavour development and acidities point to a great year.