Matthew Jukes' 100 Best Australian Wines 2011 (UK)

Promised Land Cabernet Merlot 2008

'This is a wonderful work horse red from the massive overachievers at Wakefield (Taylor's). With sweet damson Shiraz and firm, adroit Cabernet playing off each other in this blend it is a little like two martial artists, with differing weapons, putting on a stunning display of their skills. Affordable, drinking now and impressive, particularly to fans of say Rioja or claret, this is a wine which should play Pied Piper to the uninitiated and welcome thousands of fans to honestly made, deeply satisfying Aussie wine.'
