Country of Origin	France
Region	Côte de Nuits
Grape varieties	Pinot Noir

Wine description

The village of Marsannay lies to the south of Dijon and marks the northern gateway to the Côte d'Or. Marsannay received its Appellation Contrôlée as recently as 1987 in recognition of the consistently high quality of its wine. The wines are characterised by their robust and intense structure, influenced by the iron-based soils on which they grow.

Tasting note

The nose reveals aromas of cherry and licorice. The palate is full and fresh revealing cherry and peppery notes with elegant tannins on the finish.
